PREFACE

The Congregation for the Oriental Churches, Rome, gave the recognitio for the text of the Sacraments of the Syro-Malabar Church on 24 June 2004 (Prot. No. 200/23). As per the Decree of the Major Archbishop Mar Varkey Vithayathil, the text of the Sacraments of the Syro-Malabar Church was promulgated on 1 December 2004.

The text of the Syro-Malabar Sacraments was prepared after a detailed study and discussion lasting many years. The draft text prepared by the Central Liturgical Committee was discussed and approved by the Synod held on 28 October-15 November 1996 with necessary modifications and was sent to Rome. After a detailed study, Rome had given certain suggestions for the consideration of the Synod on 31 March 2000 (Prot. No.200/93). The revised draft prepared by the Synod on the basis of these suggestions was sent to the dioceses for further observations and suggestions. Considering the opinions from the diocese, the final text was approved by the Synod held on November 05-16, 2001 and was sent again to Rome for recognitio on 14 December 2001. Having received the same, the Order of the Sacraments of Infant Baptism and Chrismation (Confirmation), Adult Baptism and Chrismation (Confirmation), Holy Matrimony, Reconciliation, Anointing of the Sick were published on 1 December 2004.

The options given for the Holy Qurbana are applicable to the Sacraments too. The specific options given in the text of the Sacraments are also the prerogatives of the celebrating priest. The Order of the Sacraments came to be effective on 6 January 2005.

Having verified that the English version is true to the original Malayalam version promulgated by the Major Archbishop on 1st December 2004, I hereby approve this English translation as per the mandate given by the synod of Bishops of the Syro-Malabar Church.

Infant Baptism and Chrismation (Confirmation)

General Instructions

1. The celebrant wears the vestments prescribed for the celebration of the Holy Qurbana.
2. The ceremony begins at the main door of the church. The godparents and others stand at the door outside the church. The godmother carries the child. For convenience, she may hold the child in such a way that the child's head rests in her right arm. The presence of the parents during baptism shall be encouraged.
3. The general rule is that the oil be blessed during the ceremony of baptism. For sufficient reason, previously blessed oil also may be used. The oil is to be blessed with Myron (Chrism). Vegetable oil like olive oil, coconut oil and gingili oil can be used.

4. Water for each baptism shall be blessed on the occasion of the baptism itself, except in an emergency.
5. It is desirable that the white dress, with which the child is clothed after baptism, be brought by the child's own people.
6. They may be encouraged to bring the candle as well. It is good that the candle be decorated.
7. It is recommended that the rite of baptism be performed once a month when many people can participate in the rite. It will help towards the ecclesial and social dimension of this sacrament.
8. Readings from the Bible may be limited to two or three instead of four. If there are only two readings, the first shall be from the Epistles and the other from the Gospel.
9. The blessing before the Gospel reading shall be done with the Gospel.
10. Baptism is given by immersing the child in water thrice, or by making the child sit in water and pouring water over the head thrice in the form of the cross, or by pouring water over the head thrice in the form of the cross.

11. The first anointing is done with the blessed oil of the previous baptism.
12. The options granted in the Qurbana are valid in the rite of baptism also.
13. [] This sign denotes options granted in the rite of baptism.
14. Holy Communion is to be given as early as possible after Baptism and Chrismation.
15. Those who are not able to receive Chrismation along with Baptism may be anointed, using the text in this book starting with karozyutha (page no 34). The introductory prayers and the Liturgy of the Word till karozyutha are taken from the text of the Holy Qurbana.

Psalm 42

- C: As the deer longs for flowing streams, so my soul longs for you, O God.
(Canon) “Unless one is born of water and the Spirit, he cannot enter the kingdom of God”.
- A: My soul thirsts for God, for the living God. When shall I come and behold the face of God?
- C: Why are you cast down, O my soul,
And why are you disquieted within me?
Hope in God; for I shall again praise Him,
My help and my God.
- A: My soul is cast down within me,
Therefore I remember thee
From the land of Jordan and of Hermon,
From Mount Mizar.
- C: By day the Lord commands his steadfast love;
And at night his song is with me,
A prayer to the God of my life.
- A: Why are you cast down, O my soul,
And why are you disquieted within me?
Hope in God; for I shall again praise Him,
My help and my God.

and to the Holy Spirit.
- A: From eternity and forever. Amen.

- The celebrant, extending his right hand over the head of the child, and with the palm downwards, says the following prayer:*
- C: Lord, You who said: “Ask and it will be given to you; seek and you will find; knock and it will be opened to you,” fulfil this gracious promise in this servant. You have given Your gift not only to the wise and to the intelligent, but also to children. Your mercy has led this child to the waters of baptism. You have enabled him (her) to a new life by a spiritual birth. May this servant, who now becomes a member of Your mystical body, grow bodily and spiritually by the reception of the sacraments. Together with this child, we thank you for the gift given to this servant. Now and always ✠ (blesses the child) and forever.
- A: Amen.

*The celebrant asks the following questions

All go in procession to the Bema. The following psalm may be sung during the procession.

Psalm 84

My soul yearns, O Lord of hosts!
To dwell in Your lovely dome.
It faints for the Court of the Lord.

My heart leaps, O God of Life!
To praise in a joyful wave
It sings for the Living God.

At your altar, Lord of lords!
A nest for the swallow seeks.
A home for the sparrow finds.

Happy men who live with You
Sing praise in a lively voice.
Their hearts know paths to Zion.

Baca valley turns to springs
As God's men pass by the paths
Rain fills land with the pools.

Yahweh's men grow stronger still
To behold, the Lord of Zion
Witness our shield, Lord God.

God of Jacob, hear our prayer
Look on the face of Your men
Bless Your anointed ones.

God of Jacob, God of gods
Greater a day in your Court
Than thousand days elsewhere.

God of hosts, God of gods!
 Better a guard in Your House
 Than life in the wicked's tent.

Sun and shield, Lord of Lords
 Bestowing honour, grace
 To all those who walk upright.

Praise and glory ever Amen
 Be to the Father, be to the Son,
 Be to the Spirit Amen.

OR

C: How lovely is Your dwelling place,
 O Lord of hosts, My soul longs
 indeed, it faints for the court of the Lord.

A: My heart and flesh sing for joy
 to the living God.

C: Even the sparrow finds a home,
 And the swallow a nest for herself.

A: Where she may lay her young, at your altars,
 O Lord of hosts, my king and my God.

C: Happy are those who live in your house,
 Ever singing your praise.

A: Happy are those whose strength is in You,
 In whose heart are the highways to Zion.

C: As they go through the valley of Baca.
 And they make it a place of springs.

A: The early rain also covers it with pools.

C: They grow from strength to strength.
 The God of gods will be seen in Zion.

A: O Lord God of hosts,
 Hear my prayer.

C: Give ear, O God of Jacob,
 Behold our shield, O God;
 Look on the face of Your anointed.

A: For a day in Your courts is better than a thousand elsewhere.

C: I would rather be a doorkeeper in the house of my God than live in the tents of wickedness.

A: For the Lord God is a sun and shield
 He bestows favour and honour.

C: No good thing does the Lord withhold from those who walk uprightly.

A: O Lord of hosts,
Happy is everyone who trusts in You.

By the grace of the Holy Spirit, who is one in Divine Being with You, the orders of true priesthood are conferred through the imposition of hands. In Your great mercy, You have made us worthy - weak and lowly though we are - to be distinctive members of the mystical body, the Church, to minister to the faithful. Profession of Faith

C: We believe in One God, the Father Almighty,

C&A: Creator of all things visible and invisible,/ and in one Lord Jesus Christ,/ the only begotten Son of God,/ the first born of all creatures,/ born of the Father before all ages,/ and not made,/ true God from true God,/ consubstantial with his Father.

Through Him the worlds were formed/ and all things were created.

For the sake of us men and for our salvation/ He came down from heaven;/ and became incarnate by the Holy Spirit/ and became man,/ and was conceived and born of the Virgin Mary.

He suffered and was crucified/ in the days of Pontius Pilate/died and was buried;/ and on the third day rose again/ as it is written.

He ascended into heaven/ and sits at the right hand of his Father./ He will come again/ to judge the dead and the living./

We believe in one Holy Spirit;/ the spirit of truth,/ who proceeds from the Father (and the Son)/ the life giving Spirit.

We believe in one, holy, catholic, and apostolic Church./ We confess one baptism/ for the remission of sins,/ the resurrection of the body,/ and life everlasting./ Amen.

All go to the baptistery in procession.

During the procession the following hymn may be sung.

Praise and Glory
Lord God Holy
Angles honour
Thy name, ever.

John, the Baptist
Prepared the Lord's way
Gospel of penitence
Preached, the Prophet.

Jesus at Jordan
Bowed most meekly
Burdened by men's sins
Embracing Baptism.

Spotless, Lord God
Cleanse us sinners
Shower your blossom
The grace of Baptism.

After reaching the baptistery

D: Dear brothers and sisters, the celebrant starts praying for himself in preparation for administering holy baptism that gives the divine life. Standing in reverence and diligence, let us now pray in silence.

C: Lord, You who seek out the lost and gather up the scattered, have chosen this humble servant for priestly ministry in Your Church. Fulfilling all righteousness you received baptism from John the Baptist from Jordan, and also appointed the apostles to administer the same.
Grant me the grace to administer this sacrament

Adult Baptism and Chrismation (Confirmation)

General Instructions

1. Normally, this rite is administered in four stages, keeping a clear interval between stages. The period of interval could be months or years. It is also possible to schedule these periods according to the liturgical calendar. For example, the first stage may begin with Denha (Epiphany), and proceed through the other seasons in such a way that baptism is administered on Holy Saturday.
2. For sufficient reason, the four stages may be reduced to one service.
3. It shall be performed as a solemn ceremony of the Church, highlighting the social aspect of the sacrament, and the need for the participation of the parish.

All proceed to the closed door of the baptistery (or else to the baptismal font). During the procession the following Psalm may be sung:

(Psalm 84)

My soul yearns, O Lord of hosts!
To dwell in Your lovely dome.
It faints for the court of the Lord.

My heart leaps, O God of Life!
To praise in a joyful wave
It sings for the living God.

At your altar, Lord of lords!
A nest for the swallow seeks.
A home for the sparrow finds.

Happy men who live with You.
Sing praise in a lively voice.
Their hearts know paths to Zion.

Bacca valley turns to springs,
As God's men pass by the paths
Rain fills land with the pools.

Yahweh's men grow stronger still
To behold, the Lord of Zion,
Witness our shield, Lord God.

God of Jacob, hear our prayer.
Look on the face of Your men;
Bless Your anointed ones.

God of Jacob, God of gods,
Greater a day in your court
Than thousand days elsewhere.

God of hosts, God of gods!
Better a guard in Your house
Than life in the wicked's tent.

Sun and shield, Lord of Lords,
Bestowing honour, grace
To all those who walk upright.

Praise and glory ever, (Amen)
Be to the Father, be to the Son,
Be to the Spirit. Amen.

OR

How lovely is your dwelling place
O Lord of hosts!

My soul longs, indeed it faints
for the courts of the Lord;
My heart and my flesh sing for joy
to the living God.

Even the sparrow finds a home,
and the swallow a nest for herself,

Where she may lay her young at your altars,
O Lord of hosts, my king and my God.

Happy are those who live in your house,
Ever singing your praise.

Happy are those whose strength is in you,
In whose heart are the highways to Zion.

As they go through the valley of Ba'ca
They make it a place of springs;
The early rain also covers it with pools.

They go from strength to strength;
The God of gods will be seen in Zion.

O Lord God of hosts, hear my prayer;
Give ear, O God of Jacob!

Behold our shield, O God,
Look on the face of your anointed.

For a day in your court is better than
a thousand elsewhere.

I would rather be a doorkeeper in the house of my God than live in the tents of wickedness.

For the Lord God is a sun and shield;
He bestows favour and honour.

No good thing does the Lord withhold from those who walk uprightly.

O Lord of hosts,
happy is everyone who trusts in you.

When the procession reaches the Bema, the celebrant stretches out his right hand over the aspirant and prays:

✠(blesses the aspirant) and forever.

May Your salvific day, on which the whole humankind may be united and assembled under one shepherd and one sheepfold, come soon. D: Bless us, O Lord. Brothers and sisters, bow your heads for the imposition of hands and receive the blessing.

Everybody bows. The celebrant bows and says the following prayer in a low voice.

(On Sundays and Feast Days)

C: Lord, Almighty God, Yours is the Holy Catholic Church, the flock, redeemed through the passion and suffering of Your Anointed Son. By the grace of the Holy Spirit, who is one in Divine Being with You, the orders of true priesthood are conferred through the imposition of hands. In Your great mercy,

You have made us worthy weak and lowly though we are to be distinctive members of Your mystical body, the Church, to minister to the faithful. Lord, fill us with Your mercy and grace, and pour forth Your blessings through our hands. May Your mercy and blessings be on us and on this Your chosen people.

(On Weekdays and during Lent)

C: Lord God, Extend Your merciful right hand over the universal and apostolic Church. Protect it from every danger, visible and invisible. In Your compassion make us worthy to minister in Your presence with devotion, diligence, and purity.

Resuming a straight posture, the celebrant prays raising his voice:

C: Merciful God, Bless us. Grant that all of us, as one body, may properly please You throughout our lives, by works of justice that reconcile us with You. Make us worthy to offer You never ending praise, homage, thanksgiving, and adoration. Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, Lord of all, forever.

A: Amen

Profession of Faith

C: We believe in One God, the Father Almighty,
C&A: Creator of all things visible and invisible, and in one Lord Jesus Christ, the only begotten Son of God, the first born of all creatures, born of the Father before all ages, and not made, true God from true God, consubstantial with his Father. Through Him the worlds were formed and all things were created. For the sake of us men and for our salvation, He came down from heaven; and became incarnate by the Holy Spirit and became man, and was conceived and born of the Virgin Mary. He suffered and was crucified in the days of Pontius Pilate, died and was buried; and on the third day rose again as it is written. He ascended into heaven and sits at the right hand of His Father. He will come again to judge the dead and the living. We believe in one Holy Spirit; the spirit of truth, Who proceeds from the Father (and the Son) the lifegiving Spirit. We believe in one, holy, catholic, and apostolic Church. We confess one baptism for the remission of sins, the resurrection of the body, and life everlasting. Amen.

All go to the baptistery in procession. In the meantime the following hymn may be sung.

 Lord God Holy
 Angles honour
 Thy name, ever
 John, the Baptist
 Prepared the Lord's way
 Gospel of penitence
 Preached, the Prophet.

Grant me the grace to administer this sacrament in a worthy manner, Lord of all, forever.

A: Yes, I do.

C: May God bless you.

All together sing the Hymn to the Holy Spirit.

O, Holy Spirit

Descended on disciples

Dawn on the faithful

Fill us with grace.

Gift us with holy love

Make us serene, Lord

Refresh and renew us

The down trodden lot.

Kindle the glow of faith

Inside desperate minds

Brighten the drooping eyes

Wiping the tear drops.

Bring in the breeze of cool

Into the parched lands.

Blossom the withered branch

Pouring your gifts.

D: Dear brothers and sisters, in preparation for signing this servant with the Holy Myron, the celebrant now prays for himself. Staying devout and diligent, let us pray in silence.

C: Lord, Almighty God, we thank You for the infinite mercy by which You sent the Holy Spirit upon the apostles and strengthened them. You shower the Church with the gift of the Holy Spirit, through the imposition of hands by the apostles and their successors. Make me, O Lord, this humble self, worthy to administer this gift to this servant. Father, Son and Holy Spirit, forever.

A: Amen.

Empower him (her), being filled with the divine Spirit, through the imposition of hands, to live as a brave soldier, bearing witness to the Gospel, and as a loyal servant of the Church. May he (she) be filled with Your Spirit's fruits of love, peace, happiness, patience, kindness, goodness, fidelity, meekness and self-control. By Your grace, may he (she) be blessed to live

C: Lord God, may the life giving sign and the fullness of the grace of the Holy Spirit that he (she) has received, the new life he (she) has begun, and the armour of fairness he (she) is wearing, shield him (her) from the enemy's harm. May he (she) be blessed to exude the divine fragrance of Christ in his (her) life.

A: Amen.

Jn 15:9-12

As the Father has loved me, so I have loved you; abide in my love. If you keep my commandments, you will abide in my love, just as I have kept my Father's commandments and abide in his love. I have said these things to you so that my joy may be in you, and that your joy may be complete. "This is my commandment, that you love one another as I have loved you."

OR

Mt 6:25-33

'Therefore I tell you, do not worry about your life, what you will eat or what you will drink, or about your body, what you will wear. Is not life more than food, and the body more than clothing? Look at the birds of the air; they neither sow nor reap nor gather into barns, and yet your heavenly Father feeds them. Are you not of more value than they? And can any of you by worrying add a single hour to your span of life? And why do you worry about clothing? Consider the lilies of the field, how they grow; they neither toil nor spin, yet

I tell you, even Solomon in all his glory was not clothed like one of these. But if God so clothes the grass of the field, which is alive today and tomorrow is thrown into the oven, will he not much more clothe you - you of little faith? Therefore do not worry, saying, "What will we eat?" or "What will we drink?" or "What will we wear?" For it is the Gentiles who strive for all these things; and indeed your heavenly Father knows that you need all these things. But strive first for the kingdom of God and his righteousness, and all these things will be given to you as well.

A: Glory to You Christ, Our Lord.
